"Encourage and Empower Our Students to Grow Strong"

PISJ places a strong emphasis on education since it helps students develop their character, mental fortitude, intellect, and ability to stand on their own feet. We recognize that each kid is an individual, and PISJ works to foster their talents.

Personally, I think that a child's education is richer when the child's imagination is encouraged. The purpose of education is to assist the child in realizing and pursuing his or her potential and innate abilities. Since I firmly believe that education should combine academic brilliance with creativity, as our children are the foundation of our world's future. As a principal, it is my mission to encourage and empower our students to develop into strong, thoughtful, and modest individuals with discerning minds, ready to make a contribution in all sectors of life.

The overall development of a school depends on a value-oriented process. A child's ability to manage their emotions and social interactions is necessary for their healthy development. I want the parents to know that I'm always available to talk about any challenges, concerns, or suggestions they may have. Together with the group of competent teachers, I shall keep up the tradition of the school by cultivating a close bond with the parents. The engagement of parents is vital, in my opinion, for a child's overall development. The motto "Prosperity thrives on knowledge, and nations are built in school" has been instilled in the students of PISJ Azizia CCS, and I am confident that they will carry it forward in the future. I wish they would uphold the great standards that have been taught at this institution

Message for PISJ (CCS) STUDENTS

"There is no innovation and creativity without failure. Period."

— Brene Brown NEWSLETTER

"Today, I want to delve into a topic that often sends shivers down our spines - failure. Yes, you heard me right! Failure is not a beast to be feared, but a tool to be cherished. As an educator, I have witnessed many failures, and I can confidently state that failing can be a powerful means of growth.

First and foremost, I learned that failure is not the end of the world. Life is a journey, and we get ample opportunities to try again. Secondly, I learned the importance of humility. Winning is not everything, and it's vital to be graceful in defeat. Lastly, I learned the significance of perseverance. If you desire something enough, you have to keep trying, even when the odds seem insurmountable.

But why am I emphasising this? I want you to realise that failure can be a priceless learning experience. When we fall short, we can reflect on our errors, learn from them, and try again. Some of history's most successful individuals encountered failure before achieving greatness.

Take J.K. Rowling, for instance. Before becoming a renowned author, she faced rejections from multiple publishers. Walt Disney was fired from a newspaper for "lack of creativity." Michael Jordan was expelled from his high school basketball team. But all of these individuals utilised their failures as motivation to persist and eventually attained remarkable success.

So, my dear students, don't dread failure. Instead, welcome it with open arms and grow from it. Use it as a catalyst for progress and keep pushing forward. And always keep in mind, as the legendary Winston Churchill once said, "Success is not final, failure is not fatal: it is the courage to continue that counts."

I trust that this piece has inspired you to view failure in a new light. And if you ever need someone to talk to or require assistance picking yourself up after a failure, remember that your teachers are here to support you."

A TRIBUTE TO my school

Written By: Sahib Jan Fatima 9-C

"I'm not going to school just for the academics. I wanted to share ideas, to be around people who are passionate about learning." –Emma Watson

Remember students, school will not teach you how to pay taxes however it will teach you the Pythagorean theorem. If you ever feel unhappy in school just remember, college is worse! Once you are in college, it's all downhill from there, or maybe not, guess we'll have to wait another 3 years to find out, or maybe 4 if someone fails, five if someone fails twice.

In all seriousness, remember school is the easiest educational institute you will ever set foot in. There hasn't been a solitary dull time around here since I started at PISJ CCS. Every teacher's first goal is to educate the students, not just to teach them, but to prepare them for the challenges they will encounter. PISJ CCS helps nurture pupils in developing their confidence and finding their footing. I am thankful for my teachers who inspire me to learn, work more diligently, accomplish, and rejoice.
